WeRecycle!, Inc. Announces NAID Certification

<1/28/2008> WeRecycle!, Inc., an industry leading provider of IT asset recovery and recycling services, is now NAID Certified for Mobile Computer Hard Drive Destruction out of their Connecticut location. The National Association for Information Destruction's Certification program is provided to companies performing information destruction services. The program establishes standards for secure destruction processes.

Through NAID Certification, WeRecycle!, Inc. proves their overall secure processes, from employee hire to operations for destruction. All audits to complete the process are performed by Certified Protection Professionals (CPPs).

"Achieving NAID certification serves as a tremendous milestone for WeRecycle! Inc.," said Andrew Vermette, Asset Recovery Manager at WeRecycle!, Inc. "NAID certification further demonstrates our capabilities as a leader in the data destruction and asset recovery industry while proving our commitment to quality across our process and services."
